British Strike Of Coal Miners Taken Up By Parliament

Premier Lloyd George May Submit Plans for Settlement and Return to Labors of 1,000,000 Workmen

LONDON, Oct. 19—Premier Lloyd George was expected to make declaration today at the opening of the session of the British parliament relative to the situation resulting from the strike of coal miners which began on Saturday and measures taken by the government to meet the crisis.

Look for Settlement

Laborite members of the house of commons have been for several days in conference with leaders of the miners' federation and other great labor organizations and London was hopeful that they had reached some decision, which would tend to bring about a solution of questions that brought about the walkout of the coal diggers.

Great Britain's coal mining industry has been almost completely paralyzed by the strike. Reports of idle pits come from all coal fields in England, Scotland and Wales. Sharp autumn weather prevails over the British Isles and belief was expressed today that this would have an important bearing on efforts to end the strike. No announcement so far has been made by the national union of railway men and the transport workers' union relative to joining the miners in striking.

May Supply New York

Yesterday's serious rioting near the official residence of the premier in Downing street, brought the problem of unemployment sharply to the attention of the people. Premier Lloyd George has promised to bring at once before parliament definite plans looking to the initiation of operations, which may give relief to men who are out of work, and he told a committee, which waited on him yesterday, he had proposed similar measures to the London city council.

LEADERS OF STRIKING BRITISH MINERS

These pictures, the most recent ones from England, give intimate glimpses of the men who are leading the 1,000,000 coal miners who struck recently in England, shutting off England's coal supply and throwing hundreds of thousands of men in dependent industries out of work. The strike followed weeks of conferences between the miners mine owners and the government.

$2,500,000,000 IS FARMERS LOSS

Drop in Prices Expensive to Agriculturists, Secretary of Agriculture Tells Bankers

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19—Shrinkage in the value of farm products so far this season will result in American farmers receiving $2,500,000,000 less than they would have secured on the 1919 price basis, Secretary of Agriculture Meredith said today, addressing the American Bankers' Association annual convention. He classed the resulting situation as one "which demands the best thought and sympathetic consideration of the bankers of America and, in fact, of all the people of the county."

Mr. Meredith estimated that the fall in corn prices had involved a billion dollar loss to producers, while the decrease in cotton prices amounted to a third of a billion dollars. The situation was further made harder for farmers, he said, because the labor and materials necessary to crop production had been supplied during the high price period.

"The American people must see to it that farmers secure credit sufficient for their needs," Mr. Meredith continued, "only thus can they continue to supply the nation's need for food. I think you gentlemen fully realize that if the farmer is to continue to produce and to meet the food requirements of the nation, we must have adequate prices for his products. The farmer is not the only one who would be adversely affected if he fails to secure a reasonable return for his efforts. I do not think you can fail to see that the farmers' problems are your problems, and that your ultimate prosperity depends upon a right solution of the difficulties confronting the farmer."

The marketing problem," Mr. Meredith said, is the greatest one facing the agricultural interests. He urged that bankers assist cooperative farmers' enterprises and acknowledged that bankers already had given "very great aid" to agriculture.

ARGUMENTS IN WALTER DAVIES TRIAL STARTS

Perjury Trial of Banker Is Expected to Be Completed by Night

Arguments by the attorneys began in the Walter Davies case this morning and it is likely that a verdict will be reached before night. Yesterday afternoon a few minor witnesses were called and the case was closed so far as testimony was concerned.

Attorney Frank Stevens opened for the defense this morning, and stated that in his opinion Davies was an innocent man. He reviewed the testimony and called attention to the fact that Davies had assisted the officers in heir examination of the books, a thing he believed he would not do if he was guilty. He also said that Treble had "bawled him out" for a transaction involving $100,000 and that he did not believe Davies would have done so if they had been partners as the state claimed. He was followed by Attorney Boyd for Mr. Davies, who told the jury that there was but one charge against Mr. Davies, and that was that he committed perjury on July 9th, when he was alleged to have sworn to a false statement of the condition of the bank. No evidence as to transactions that took place before or after that date should be considered, except to throw light as to wheher he had knowledge as to the alleged falsity of the report if it was false.

He will be followed by Attorneys Findley and Meals for the state, after which will come the charge to the jury, and the case will then be left in their hands.

G. O. P. Candidate For Ohio Governor To Invade County

The start is to be made from the Public Square in this city at 9 a. m. and visits are to be made to Grafton, LaGrange, Wellington, Brighton, Kipton, Oberlin, South Amherst, and then back to Elyria, where an address will be made at 7:30 in the Public Park.

The distinguished party will be accompanied by forty-five decorated automobiles, and the Brighton "Spirit of '76 drum corps." All citizens who can do so are asked to go along in their machines and help make the occasion a grand success.

W. C. T. U. HEAD DENIES RUMORS THAT SOCIETY SELECTED CANDIDATES

The rumor has been prevalent the last few days that the Womens Christian Temperance Union, in their convetnion here a short time ago, declared for Mr. Harding for president, and Mr. Donahey for governor.

This is not true and the only ground for the statement is that the president of the Womens Christian Temperance union of the state, Mrs. Florence D. Richards, did express her sentiments as above, but said she was not trying to influence any other women but was perfectly frank to tell who she is for.

There was no action taken upon the matter, and whatever stir has risen has come from some Republican leaders in defense of Mayor Davis.

Mrs. Nellie M. Hill, president of the Women's Christian Temperance union, manager of the dry federation, said today:

"I understand that in some manner the rumor was started that the Women's Christian Temperance Union of this country, in their county convention, declared themselves as favoring one candidate for governor and against the other. I want to emphatically deny this and state that the Women's Christian Temperance Union of the county are interested primarily in the referendum vote which is being taken on the Grabbe Act to enforce the prohibitory amendment of the state constitution. We are working to that end and we are not letting differences of opinion in regard to candidates, either national or in the state, interfere with this single mission."

The women of the Women's Christian Temperance Union differ in the candidates as do temperance men, and we are not having a quarrel as to the attitude of any particular person upon any candidate from the head of the ticket down. The more important matters in our mind are the issues and principles involved in the campaign to make secure House Bill known as the Crabbe Act."

EMOTIONAL POETRY WINS THE FREEDOM OF TWO COLORED MEN

A few days ago the police were notified by a green line conductor that two suspicious colored men had been picked up by him at night between Oberlin and Wellington and asked to have the police here take them over. When the car arrived the men were arrested on suspicion, and held a day or so. After they had been locked up a while, one of them handed the following plea for their release, which worked all right and they were allowed to go on their way:

Mr. Chief, please turn us loose, We're holding ... without ...

We wanted to be in Cleveland today
So open the door, we'll go on our way.

It's the longest ... suspicion we ever saw
We haven't broken the slightest law
We are not tramps, loafers or bums
Looking for whisky, cocaine or rum.

But we are honest working men,
So open the door and you won't ... again.

Complete Records Of Campaign Cost To Be Announced

Statements On Collection and Disbursements of Each Party To Be Given To Public Five Days Prior to Nov. 2 Election

ST. LOUIS, MO., Oct. 19.—Five days before the coming election, on Thursday, October 28, complete records of the collections and disbursements of the republican and democratic parties will be submitted to the public.

The senate committee appointed to investigate campaign expenditures meeting here yesterday directed the chairmen of the national senatorial and congressional committees, of the two parties, to file such reports at Chicago on that date. The reports are to cover all activities since the party chairmen testified at the committee hearing in Chicago several weeks ago.

Chairmen Notified

In telegrams addressed to Will H. Hays, republican chairman, George White, head of the democratic national committee, and the heads of the other party organizations, the committee asked for complete lists of all subscriptions in excess of $100, detailed figures on expenditures and also a list of all pledges, promises or underwriting. Senator Reed specifically asked for the latter in an effort to learn whether any arrangements had been made to meet the deficits which it has been reported both parties will face after the election.

The senatorial committee recessed after yesterday's session and does not expect to meet again until after November 2, ... parts chairmen agree to file the information asked for. In event they refuse or fail, the senators decided to meet in Chicago prior to the election and subpoena the chairmen of the committees.

Investigation of all senatorial campaigns was deferred by the committee until after the election. Breckenridge Long, democratic senatorial nominee in Missouri, who had been subpoenaed, was dismissed without being heard.

May Probe Peace League

A lengthy report on the activities of the League to enforce peace, of which William H. Taft is president, introduced into the records before the senators left last night may be followed by further investigation of the league and examination of its officers, members of the committee indicated last night. Don M. Hunt, attorney for the committee, who prepared the report following investigation of the letter filed for the league, suggested in his findings that some members of the league had, in his opinion, violated the Logan act, passed in 1799, to prohibit private citizens negotiating with foreign governments or their agents in matters of controversy in which the United States is interested.

Mr. Hunt cited a supreme court decision in the treason cases during the civil war, when American citizens were fined for proposing to English officials that Great Britain recognize the confederate states.

His report contains copies of scores of letters and papers taken from the files of the league, many of the letters being confidential communications from William H. Taft, George W. Wickersham, Theodore Marburg, Elihu Root and others.

MINOR ITEMS TRANSACTED BY CITY COUNCIL

The city council met last evening, and although they did not transact business of great importance, they did care for a number of smaller items that kept them busy for over two hours.

F. S. Aust asked the city council to pay him for the loss of a still. Not a whisky still, but a water still that he states was ruined when the water was turned off at the pumping station recently.

The plumbing code petition was presented and filed. An effort may be made if it is decided to have a plumbing inspector, to combine that office with that of sanitary police.

E. H. Barrett is to be allowed to erect a large clock on East Broad street in front of his store.

The council decided to put in a 6 inch culvert at the plant of the Lake Shore Rubber Co., so as to care for the water in that section.

The council passed the ordinance allowing cars to stop only at Court street and Washington avenue between West and East avenues, this action being taken to relieve congestion in traffic.

Sanitary sewers were ordered on Mussey avenue, Woodland avenue, and Parkview court.

The service director was ordered to complete the retaining wall on the east side of the Mussey avenue bridge that was washed out during the spring freshet.

ATTACK DAVEY ON QUESTION OF LOYALTY

Statements made in this city by Congressman Martin L. Davey, attacking the loyalty of C. L. Knight, republican candidate for congress, were challenged by Fred Ormsby and Paul G. Russell, ex-service men and Akron attorneys in a speech on the public square. Both are members of the Harding Ex-Service Men's League, who stated that the league had investigated Davey's charges and gave their findings.

They stated that Mr. Knight had a son who enlisted had gone to France and fought in the trenches. That Mr. Knight himself had been appointed a member of the draft board at Akron, and had served through the war. That he had given liberally to the Red Cross and the Community Chest, and in other ways had manifested his loyalty. The only thing he had done was to protest aaginst democratic extravagance during the war, and had criticised the government. On the other hand Martin L. Davey had conducted his first campaign by stating that when the time came Davey had said the "boys will find me with them in the front line." Instead of that he visited Governor Cox who advised him to enlist, but that Davey's wife claimed his exemptions, and he was put in Class 4 A which was a deferred class. "No man with such a record has a right to question any other man's loyalty,' declared Attorney Russell "Chas. L. Knight, is an honest man a loyal man, a brainy man, and a good citizen, and the ex-service men of Akron are for him," he declared

SAYS CHICAGO POLICE AIDED WHISKEY RING

Entire Police Stations Are Implicated in Expose Expected to Be Made by Chief of Police

CHICAGO, Oct. 19—Chief of Police Garrity summoned police department heads to a meeting today saying he would make disclosures bearing on liquor investigations which "will tear the department wide open."

"I have learned that certain captains assigned detectives and policemen to guard whiskey shipments," the chief said. "My investigators have obtained affidavits from policemen and others involving whole police stations in the whiskey traffic.

"In adition to affidavits there is a great deal of hearsay information which, if proved, may involve still others."

The affidavits will be shown at today's meeting of captains, the chief said. His statement came as a complete surprise, police officials commented.

APPROPRIATION CASE DECISION IS APPEALED

A petition in error has been filed in court by Anna Wallace Hoge against the City of Elyria. The appeal comes from probate court and the plaintiff's grounds of error are that the court erred in overruling a motion of the plaintiff; that he erred in his charge to the jury; that he erred in refusing to charge the jury as requested by the plaintiff; that he erred in ruling that the defendant was entitled to appropriate the property in question, and that the court erred in requiring twelve members of the jury to sign the verdict.

The case involves the appropriation of land on the lake front desired for enlarging the pumping station for the water works.

ABSENCE OF TRAMPS HAMPERS STREET CLEANING DEPARTMENT

The council has been asked to provide more funds for street cleaning and repairing this year. The department expended $6,400 last year, and this year $6598 was appropriated. It will take, according to the city auditor, about $2500 to last until January 1st.

Members of the council wanted to know why so much more was needed this year than last. Mayor Jones stated that one reason was that last year tramps did $800 worth of work on the city's dumps that had had to be done this year by the city force because there were but few tramps. John Conabee, street superintendent stated that under the head of street cleaning came grass cutting, cleaning sewer basins, cleaning away snow, raking up and caring for leaves, and a number of other things that all cost money. The caring for leaves was a hard proposition, but this had to be done or sewers would be clogged up. There was still considerable work to be done this fall in repairing streets, and this work will be done at once. The council appropriated enough money to meet the pay roll on November 1st, and the finance committee was instructed to find means to raise enough to meet the pay roll until ... year.

VOTERS

One year ago the wets put up four propositions by referendum which the drys had to meet. The wets were defeated on three of them forever. The one on which the wets won was against the so-called Crabbe act passed by the legislature to enforce our state amendment The next legislature last winter, passd a new act, to enforce our dry amendment in the state and the wets have put that up by referendum this fall, and they will win again unless the dry people get busy As the law in Ohio now stands so far as the Ohio statutes are concerned anybody can make and sell intoxicating liquors because the dry amendment in the state did away with the local option

The Constitution does not enforce itself It requires this law prescribing penalties to make it of any value Every dry person in the county who wants to have the wets defeated on this one proposition should not only go to the polls male and female but should at once be willing to contribute in money toward paying the expense absolutely necessary for enlightening the people and arousing them to the situation through the public prints and literature Send your money to Lorain County Dry Federation, checks payable to the treasurer

"A Tokio Siren"

The predicament of an American doctor, who, while wandering through Japan to forget an unhappy love affair, helps a little Japanese girl escape to America by making her legally his wife, only to find on his return that his former American fiancee still loves him, is the basis for an interesting story in "A Tokio Siren," a Universal photoplay featuring Tsuru Aoki, which comes to the Strand theatre today and tomorrow.

The pretty little Japanese star, widely known as the Oriental Bernhardt, and who in private life is the wife of Sessue Hayakawa, is said to appear at her best in "A Tokio Siren." Founded on Gwendolyn Logan's popular story, "Sayonara," this photodrama affords her ample opportunity for the exercise of all her native charm and delightful acting.

Jack Livingston has the part of the American doctor. He meets the Japanese girl accidentally and finds that she is being forced into a distasteful marriage. She runs away from home and appeals to the American for assistance. He goes through a wedding ceremony with her and she accompanies him on his return home.

Arthur Jasmine, a clever character actor, has the part of the Japanese boy, Ito, the doctor's protege, with whom the child bride falls in love. The doctor finds that his former love affair has not ended entirely. There is a perplexing situation, in which the Japanese film star displays her winsomeness and artistry, aided by the author's unique situations.

But everything ends happily, with the love tangle straightened out. Others in the cast are Florence Hart, Peggy Pearce, Fred Vroom, Goro Kino, Toyo Fujita, Dorothy Hipp and Eleanor Hancock.

COLONIAL

"Price of Redemption"

Beginning tomorrow "The Price of Redemption," the big new Metro production starring Bert Lytell, will be the feature attraction at the Colonial Theatre, for a run of four days. Picturized from the famous novel, "The Temple of Dawn," by I. A. R. Wylie, this new Lytell vehicle is said to surpass all previous screen productions of this popular young star and to establish a new record in expansive film creation.

The story of the play in which Bert Lytell enacts the leading role is that of a young Englishman in the dark heart of India, who becomes famous for a deed of exceptional bravery, and then sinks to the depths of degradation after an unhappy marriage in London. The picture portrays life in far-off India where, in English garrisons and native villages, Leigh Dering, a young English officer, first distinguishes himself as the hero of Fort Akbar, and then sounds all the depths of evil ways among the native drug-sellers' huts and opium dives.

In the cast supporting Mr. Lytell in "The Price of Redemption" are Seena Owen, Cleo Madison and Landers Stevens. Dallas M. Fitzgerald directed the production, which was photographed by Sol Polito. Beautiful scenic effects are a part of this superb new picture including a native uprising when the garrison of Akbar is stormed by the Hindus and the British occupants are threatened with death. It provides Bert Lytell with the opportunity for some of the best work of his career.

AMERICAN

"Vengeance of Durand"

"The Vengeance of Durand," at the American tomorrow and Thursday has some of the most gorgeous settings ever seen in a picture. Its happenings occur amid the social whirl—in great receptions, balls and dinners—within a splendid chateau. The characters are drawn from among a class of beings who dwell at the very top of cultured, finished aristocracy. Chivalry, romance and modern knightliness find play throughout against a contrast of equally dynamic evil. Big minds are seen at work in the fashioning of their own and the destiny of others as the story winds its way.

The climax alone, always a crucial point and a focal spot of a drama, novel or film, is here a fact of tremendous importance. The climax of this picture is like no climax ever contrived. It is gigantic.

CONDITIONS IN OLD COUNTRIES DISHEARTENING

Many Who Left Lorain County for Europe Anxious to Get Back But Can't Get Passports

Within the last six months, upward of 3,000 foreign residents of Lorain county have left the United States and sailed for the lands of their birth.

Since the conclusion of the war in 1917 emigration has taken a decided jump, but not until this year has it been noticed in this county.

People of all European nationalities have left the country in the last six months. Many of the former Lorain county residents were citizens of the United States and some had taken out their first papers. Others had taken steps to become citizens.

Many of the aliens left this country just for short visits to see relatives while others left with the intention of staying over there.

According to word received here from the men who left this country, they are very much disappointed in the conditions prevailing in their home lands.

Letters arriving here describe the conditions of Roumania, Hungary and Serbia as being very unsatisfactory. The men who left Lorain county for these countries are attempting to return to America but they say they cannot get passports on the other side.

To get transportation back to the states is even harder than getting to the old country. People who are visiting in Europe at this time can not book passage back until the latter part of November. Transportation prices are increasing every week and it costs approximately 25 per cent more to make the trip across the Atlantic at this time than it did several months ago.

Mike Kalugyer, a former South Lorain resident, who left Lorain for Roumania writes back to his friends and states he can not make a living there.

He said that the personal taxes payments, which were suspended during the war period, have again been resumed and the government is forcing back payment of taxes including the four years of the war, with interest at 8 per cent. Kalugyer also states that there is a separate war tax on every article to be bought.

Kalugyer says: "All the money the people can make is used in paying up their back taxes and they are forced to live on what little they have saved from past years."

One thing very noticeable at the present is that very few Germans are returning to Germany. Local agents say they have sold very few transportation [illegible]

The American clubs, Chicago, New York and Boston, that joined in the reorganization proposed are the ones which faced Johnson last winter in the baseball controversy. The five clubs not in the new agreement today were not represented at the meeting yesterday.

The National league today adopted a resolution complimenting President Heydler of the league upon his stand taken in re-organization plans and expressed a vote of thanks.

While the definite threat was expressed in the resolution endorsed by the 11 baseball magnates to lay plans for a new major league circuit without the five holdout American league clubs, if they refused to agree to the reorganization of National commission, some of the club owners present declared that no plans would be discussed for excluding the five clubs in the new scheme of control until they had been given plenty of time to consider the situation.

The general outline of the new controlling body in the baseball world has definitely expressed but no steps were taken toward a realignment of the two major leagues under the new scheme.

BASEBALL PROBE RESUMED AT CHICAGO

Fixing of 1919 World Series to Come Up For Additional Airing

CHICAGO, Oct. 19—Investigation by the special grand jury of alleged "fixing" of the 1919 world's series, as well as other phases of baseball gambling, was resumed today. The last session was held just before the world's series.

At the present session it was indicated that special attention would be paid to baseball pools and the grand jury was expected to make some recommendations as to whether or not they were a form of gambling harmful to professional baseball.

Witnesses summoned for today's hearing included Harry Frazee, owner of the Boston Red Sox; Charles Ebbets, owner of the Brooklyn nations and Ban Johnson president of the American league, was recalled.

Telegrams have been sent to Arnold Rothstein, mentioned in previous hearings as a New York gambler, who posted by the alleged "fixing" of the 1919 series; Abe Attell, former pugilist of New York; Joseph Pesch, Harvey Redmond and Thomas C. Kearney, all of St. Louis, asking them to appear before the grand jury, but none of these men have answered the telegrams. Abe Attell was recently reported to be in Canada, and it was said he had announced his intention of staying there.

Other witnesses summoned are Fred Mitchell, manager of the Chicago Cubs, John Seys, secretary and treasurer of the Cubs and "Tip" O'Neill, former president of the western league, and now in the White Sox office. Others to appear at an early date will include a number of local men who are said to be connected with baseball pools.

Assistant States Attorney Replogle, in charge of the investigation, said it was possible that there might be indictments in addition to the eight already returned against members of the White Sox team, but said it was unlikely that any of the men who played in the major league in 1920 would be involved.

WESTERN TIGERS LOSE BATTLE AT LORAIN

LORAIN, Oct. 19.—The Mercury club football team of this city had easy sailing with the Western Tigers of Elyria Sunday and handed the 100 per cent city representatives a 50-0 drubbing on the Oakwood Park grounds, in a game which was featured by spectacular runs by Mercury backfield men.

The Mercury club team started a great offensive march in the first quarter and scored its first touchdowns after a few minutes of play. Before this quarter had ended the Mercuries had scored 20 points. Seven more came in the second quarter and 23 in the third. The Mercuries failed to score in the fourth quarter, spending most of this quarter in defending its goal, which was never in danger.

OBERLIN HIGH SAYS FREMONT IS AT FAULT

MAY ASK LEAGUE OFFICIALS TO FORFEIT FREMONT GAME TO OBERLIN—TEAMS CAN'T AGREE ON WHERE GAME SHOULD BE PLAYED

OBERLIN, O., Oct. 19.—Officials of Oberlin high today said it is no fault of the local school that the Fremont-Oberlin game for next Saturday has been cancelled and for which Fremont threatens to ask the league to have the new admitted Oberlin school ousted from the Northern Ohio Scholastic league which in addition to these two teams is composed of Lorain, Elyria, Bellevue, Sandusky, and Norwalk.

Oberlin contends the game was scheduled at Oberlin and that Fremont refuses to make the trip. Fremont has scheduled Scott High Reserves of Toledo on the home field next Saturday. On the other hand Fremont said Oberlin was scheduled for a game at Fremont. Oberlin had been figuring the battle as the main home attraction of the season and had contemplated enriching the home team coffers by a large attendance because of Oberlin College playing at Wooster on this date and no other home game to decide the attendance.

Oberlin officials declare that they and not Fremont have a just cause in bringing the matter up before the annual officials' meeting to be held at Norwalk in December. Oberlin will seek to attain a forfeited game, it is understood today.

DEAR OLD PETE:

Winston-Salem, N. C.
Friday p. m.

Just wound up the one swellest day of my life! Since early this morning, when I got an invitation to visit R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories, I've been in the midst of millions of Camel cigarettes.

Man—the happiest idea you or I ever had as to the size of this Reynolds enterprise, or the number of Camels manufactured daily, is simply piker-stuff! Wipe off the slate and start fresh! Why—Pete, it seemed to me like a couple of those cigarette-making machines could keep half the nation smoking Camels steadily—BUT—honest to goodness, there are hundreds of these machines batting out Camels at the rate of 27,000 an hour—EACH!

Pete, you wouldn't have to consult a guide book to know you were in the Camel factories! The atmosphere is charged with that wonderful aroma you get when you open up a deck of Camels! And, you know, old elephant—you've had a trunk full!

As the Camels dropped into the containers I figured the delight each one would supply! And, how Camels mellow, mild body would hit the right spot and how Camels refreshing flavor would cheer up some smoker's jaded appetite! And, each Camel free from any unpleasant cigaretty aftertaste or unpleasant cigaretty odor! And—

Pete—I'll have to lay off and light another Camel! Write you some more soon.

Yours joyously

Shorty.

ELYRIA VOTE IS DOUBLED

Clerk Sperry of the board of elections estimates that there are 8,250 men and women registered this year. Two Elyria precincts have not reported although they have been asked to several times. Mr. Sperry estimates that there were 3,300 women and 4,950 men that registered and believes that he is less than fifty off from the actual figures when all returns are in.

In 1916, the last presidential year, Elyria cast 3,721 votes, and two years ago cast 3,191.

He stated also that he had issued ballots to 104 absent voters, of which 36 were women.

CONDITION OF THE IRISH HUNGER STRIKERS IS SERIOUS

CORK, Oct. 19.—The condition of the Irish hunger strikers in Cork jail has become worse as the result of depression caused by the death Sunday of Michael Fitzgerald, first of the 11 to succumb.

Joseph Murphy, who was very low Monday, has rallied as the result of medical treatment, but his case is still regarded as the most critical. Severe collapses were suffered by two of the strikers, Donovan and Kenny, early this morning. Sean Hennessy, Reilly and Upton are also in a critical state.

To prevent Irish volunteers from marching in the funeral procession of Fitzgerald, when his body was removed this afternoon from the church here to Fermoy, a large force of military surrounded the church and six lorry loads of soldiers and an armored car fell in behind the mourners' carriages following the coffin.

In the business streets through which the procession passed great indignation was expressed among the people at the military display, feverish excitement prevailing.

Volunteers in long rows, clasping one anothers hands lined Patrick street on both sides to make a path for the funeral.

TITLE BATTLE TO BE STAGED ON SATURDAY

Game Between Oberlin and Wooster at Wooster Likely to Determine 1920 Conference Championship.

OBERLIN, Oct. 19—Oberlin began today to prepare for her hardest game of the season, against Wooster university Saturday at Wooster, Oberlin and Wooster tied for the state championship last last year, as neither lost a conference game, and the two teams this season seem to be very closely matched.

Oberlin would rather win this game than any other on the schedule, and practice this week will be stiff and long. Coach T. N. Metcalf said that he expected the hardest fight of the season from Wooster.

The game will be the attraction of Wooster's annual home coming day, and besides many Wooster alumni who will see the game, at least 200 will make the trip from here. The Oberlin fans are looking for the varsity to put Wooster out of the championship race.

Metcalf will have his best lineup in the game as all of the cripples have recovered sufficiently to play. Rickards, who has been out since the first play of the Heidelberg game two weeks ago, will be back at right end, while McPhee, Wheeler, Taylor and Lansdale are also in fairly good condition now.

Bill Parkhill, star dropkicker, has been showing much better accuracy in his field goal tries than was the case earlier in the season; and it is probable that Metcalf will give him the chance he wants against Wooster. Parkhill, who jumped into fame two years ago by dropping a goal against Reserve from fifty-six yards away, has been playing the game of his life this year, and has starred in each of the contests so far.

Fans here are wondering why the backfield has not shown the strength of last year, when Taylor and McPhee gained ground almost at will. Taylor has not shown his best form yet, and McPhee has also been less successful than last season. If these men can get started against Wooster in the style that they showed against Reserve, Case and Miami last year, Oberlin should be returned the winner.

Practice this week probably will include a good deal of scrimmage and interference work. The line has exceeded expectations and has playd very capably in all the games so far. It is the offense that looms as the real problem to Coach Metcalf, and he will spare no effort to have it at its highest strength Saturday.

Oberlin fears Fullback Dunbar and Quarterback Snyder of the Wooster team, and will watch them closely to prevent either getting away for long runs. The game will be by far the most important one of the week in the Ohio conference and the winner will be the favorite to take down the championship this year.

ELMER SMITH TO PLAY WITH SANDUSKY FIVE

MILAN, Oct. 19.—Elmer Smith, rightfielder for the world champion Cleveland Indians, who was tendered a home-coming celebration by his fellow-townsmen last night, will be an official and will also play with the Buick Bugs basketball team of Sandusky the coming winter, it was admitted by O'Neil today.

The local baseball slugger is considered one of the best basketballers in these parts. In addition to being a good official and superb player the fact that Smith performs is an added attraction and his friends from this section flock enmasse to the games which often is solely responsible for the team keeping its finances above the water line.

ELMER SMITH HONORED BY HOME TOWNS FOLKS

SANDUSKY, Oct. 19.—Elmer Smith, starr outfielder of the Cleveland American league team, and one of the heroes of the recent world's series, was formally welcomed to Milan, home of himself and father, last night.

Following a community dinner served on long tables set in Milan park, Smith was presented a gold watch set with diamonds, purchased with money contributed by villagers. Speeches by Milanites, men and women, and music by the Milan band were other features of an elaborate program.

Practically the entire population of Milan, with hundreds from neighing communities, witnessed, if it did not participate in, the welcome.

WOOSTER GETS READY FOR OBERLIN BATTLE

WOOSTER, Oct. 19.—Coach Boles' eleven started work today to tune up for the hard Oberlin contest next Saturday, a contest which will eliminate one or the other of the leading contestants for the Ohio championship.

Hartman and Williams, center, and Cleary, guard, were not in the Reserve game Saturday because of injuries received earlier in the season. Snyder, quarter, and Stiffler, end, were hurt slightly Saturday.

Coach Boles hopes to have all two of these players in the Oberlin game. Boles' first problem this week is to prevent a recurrence of the costly fumbling which kept down the score against Reserve.

LORAIN, O., Oct. 19.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight King and Steve O'Neil, catcher on the world champion Cleveland Indians will be guests of honor at the Friends of Irish Freedom smoker and boxer to be held at Knights of Columbus hall tomorrow evening.

Dave and Dick Taylor of Elyria and Sammy Gerace, Walter (Toughy) Ramser and members of the Lorain Boys' Athletic Club will supply the thrillers.

Both Kilbane and O'Neil will take an active part in the program. O'Neil, it is understood, will forget about baseball for the time being and will take a crack at refereeing, alternating in this honor with the other champion.

Local hand-ball enthusiasts expected that Kilbane and O'Neil would stack their skill in this line of sport against the hand ball champions of Lorain tomorrow afternoon. This match, however, has not been decided upon definitely.

Situated in the City of Lorain, County of Lorain, and State of Ohio, and known as being the southwesterly part of lot number sixty-four (64) as known and designated on the original Village Plat of Charleston, now City of Lorain, and bounded and described as follows: beginning at the southwesterly corner of said lot 64, thence northerly in the westerly line of said lot one hundred and 72-100 (100.72) feet; thence easterly in a line parallel with the southerly line of said lot thirty-three (33) feet to a point; thence southerly in a line parallel with the westerly line of said lot 100.72 feet to the southerly line of said lot at a point 33 feet easterly from the place of beginning; thence westerly in the southerly line of said lot thirty-three (33), feet to the place of beginning, being a tract of land fronting 33 feet on Fourth Street, formerly Duane Street, and extending back of equal width, one hundred and 72-100 feet, be the same more or less but subject to all legal highways.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

ELYRIA, OHIO, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1920

LABOR AND THE GAS COMPANY

Some time ago it will be recalled that the Gas Company congratulated the citizens on a labor leadership in the city as also on the councilmen, etc.

It is interesting to note the comment of the Labor Advocate, the official paper of labor here in Elyria on the action taken by the City Council in passing the ordinance increasing the price of gas with the emergency clause attached.

The following is an excerpt from an editorial in their September issue:

> Whatever may the merits or demerits of the gas ordinance passed by the Gas Company, they have no right, either moral or legal, to attach thereto an emergency clause and thereby deprive the people of their constitutional right of expressing their will in the matter. It is the business of the City Council to express as nearly as they can the will of the people. But they have attempted to smother popular government and to force upon the city an ordinance which may or may not be what the people want.
> The rights of the people are paramount, and they are entitled to have their say, whether they suffer for it or not. That is no business of the City Council.
>
> Again, the City Council has made no positive attempt to make any other settlement with the Gas Company except the one asked for by that company. The Gas Company is just like you or I, they are interested in making the best bargain they can for themselves. They will use every means of persuasion they can in order to accomplish that result. They will say, of course, that they will accept no other settlement than the one they asked for.
>
> What the council should have done would have been to draw up an ordinance embodying what they believed to be the justice in the matter, pass it, and then offer it to the Gas Company. Even though the Gas Company may have the city by the throat we do not believe that they are so foreign to the idea of simple justice that they would have turned down such an offer.
>
> The City Council has simply failed to attempt even to take any ordinary precautions to safeguard the interests of the people. However, they have acted true to form and we are not surprised.

ROBBERS HOLD UP LORAIN STORE, BIG LOOT

LORAIN, Oct. 19.—Masked robbers walked into the M. A. Doing grocery store, 1009 Seventh street, and in full view of passersby, held up the proprietor and a clerk and made away with nearly $450 in cash.

Police say the robbery was one of the most daring ever committed in the city.

Doing and his son, R. A. Doing, were in the store alone, according to police, when three young men entered.

The clerk was at the front of the store and the proprietor in the rear. All in a minute's time, Doing said, each of the trio pulled a revolver.

The men were commanded to throw up their hands and face the wall. Two of the three robbers ordered Doing and his son into the basement. They followed down the stairs where both men were searched and relieved of everything but a watch.

"We don't want that," one of the holdup men said.

Doing and his son were pushed into a side room in the basement and the door secured. Then the robbers left the basement and went to the first floor.

All three left the store almost immediately. Doing broke out of his temporary prison and rushed to the top of the stairs in time to see the three men enter an awaiting automobile. Police were notified.

The lone bandit who had remained on the first floor had cleaned the cash drawer of its contents.

Doing told police he believed the robbers were ex-service men. All three, he said, carried army revolvers and wore khaki shirts open at the neck.

All wore brown suits and caps, he said. Police said all the robbers were between 20 and 25 years old. None of the trio wore masks, Doing told police.

IDEAL WEATHER BRINGS MANY TOURS

Thousands of automobilists took advantage of the beautiful weather Sunday and Monday to make trips to the country and surrounding cities. They were perfect days for automobile riding and many Elyrians went into the country looking for late peaches, grapes, apples and vegetables, especially potatoes. On the Ridgeville road many farmers had large quantities of the fruits of their labor on exhibit, including some instances big jugs filled with cider. On inquiring the price it was found that they varied but little from the top price asked by the merchants and dealers at home. The only advantage being that you had the pick of what was shown and carried it home yourself. One farmer who raises considerable for the market said that he had been able to sell all he could spare by placing his fruit and vegetables where automobile parties could see it, and they were always ready to pay regular market price for what he had.
